Former Candidate for Phoenix Mayor Arrested

Jarrett Maupin, (DOB 6-5-87) who ran for Mayor of Phoenix against Phil Gordon in 2007, was arrested this afternoon by the Sheriff's Office for one count of false reporting to a law enforcement agency, a misdemeanor.

The arrest stems from a claim Maupin, who also served on the Phoenix Union High School Board for four years, made to the Sheriff's Office alleging his opponent may have broken the law.

An investigation shows Maupin lied about the allegation and having proof of it in his possession. He was booked into the Fourth Avenue Jail this afternoon.
