GOOD HOMES FOR SHERIFF JOE'S ABUSED ANIMALS

(Phoenix, AZ) Maricopa County Sheriff Joe Arpaio is hosting an open house and adoption event at his MASH Unit (Maricopa County Sheriff's Animal Safe Hospice), a no-kill shelter for abused and rescued animals this Saturday and Sunday, September 22 & 23, 2007, between 8:00am and 5:00pm.

The visiting public and media are welcomed during the open house and adoption event at each facility. The M.A.S.H. I facility is in the old 1st Avenue Jail at 102 W. Madison St, and the M.A.S.H. II complex is located at 3127 W. Gibson Lane, Phoenix, Arizona.

The pets to be adopted out include the many adorable cats, dogs, horses, goats, and pigs rescued during animal cruelty investigations conducted by the Sheriff's Animal Crimes Unit.

Sheriff Joe Arpaio will be on hand to greet visitors Saturday morning at 10:00am at the M.A.S.H. I.

Adoptions will be on a first come, first serve basis. The recommended donation is $100.00 for each dog or cat, $400 for each horse, and $50 for goats and pigs.

Please join us and help find loving homes for these adorable pets.
